A secret Army study has detailed the widespread logistical problems faced by Australian forces in Iraq 15 years ago.

The report, obtained by the ABC and marked "for Australian eyes only", revealed how frontline troops were often without crucial supplies for battle and military commanders struggled to get the personnel required.

According to the 156-page document there were also deep concerns about a vaccination program for soldiers that was described as "poorly thought out".

Make Your Move

We live in a small, interconnected world.

Almost everything we buy either comes from overseas or is made with products and equipment from somewhere else. In the same way, Australian products and raw materials are used all over the world.

There's an army of people working behind-the-scenes in the International Trade, Transport and Logistics industry to keep the world moving. Make Your Move and help make it happen.
