

YOUR RIGHTS AS AN APPRENTICE

youngworkers.org.au

KEY RIGHTS

1

TAFE fees must be reimbursed or paid for by your employer.

2

If you are 21 or older when you started your apprenticeship you are entitled to higher mature age wages.

3

You must be paid for all hours worked including overtime.

4

As an apprentice you cannot be fired for exercising a workplace right or refusing to work in unsafe conditions.

5

Your employer has a duty of care to you as an apprentice, to make sure you are correctly supervised and not treated poorly at work.

If you are ever unsure about your rights at work call the Young Workers Centre
